JUNE 11. 1741. NUMB. 652.

The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

His MAJESTY's Moſt Gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, On Wedneſday the Eighth Day of April, 1741.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AT the Opening of this Seſſion, I took Notice to you of the Death of the late Emperor, and of My Reſolution to adhere to the Engagements I am under, in order to the maintaining of the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe, on that important Occaſion. The Aſſurances I received from you, in return to this Communication, were perfectly agreeable to that Zeal and Vigour, which this Parliament has always exerted, in the Support of the Honour and Intereſt of My Crown and Kingdoms, and of the Common Cauſe.

The War, which has ſince broke out, and been carried on, in part of the Auſtrian Dominions, and the various and extenſive Claims, which are publickly made on the late Emperor's Succeſſion, are new Events, that require the utmoſt Care and Attention, as they may involve all Europe in a bloody War, and in Conſequence, expoſe the Dominions of ſuch Princes, as ſhall take Part in Support of the Pragmatick Sanction, to imminent and immediate Danger. The Queen of Hungary has already made a Requiſition of the Twelve Thouſand Men, expreſly ſtipulated by Treaty; and thereupon I have demanded of the King of Denmark, and of the King of Sweden, as Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, their reſpective Bodies of Troops, conſiſting of Six Thouſand Men each, to be in Readineſs to march forthwith to the Aſſiſtance of Her Hungarian Majeſty. I am alſo concerting ſuch further Meaſures as may obviate and diſappoint all dangerous Deſigns and Attempts, that may be forming or carried on in Favour of any unjuſt Pretenſions, to the Prejudice of the Houſe of Auſtria. In this complicated, and uncertain State of Things, many Incidents may ariſe, during the Time, when, by Reaſon of the Approaching Concluſion of this Parliament, it may be impoſſible for Me to have your Advice and Aſſiſtance, which may make it neceſſary for Me to enter into ſtill larger Expences, for maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction. In a Conjuncture ſo critical, I have thought it proper, to lay theſe important Conſiderations before you, and to deſire the Concurrence of My Parliament, in enabling Me to contribute in the moſt effectual Manner, to the Support of the Queen of Hungary, the Preventing by all reaſonable Means, the Subverſion of the Houſe of Auſtria, and to the Maintaining the Liberties and Balance of Power in Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I muſt recommend it to you, to grant Me ſuch a Supply as may be requiſite for theſe Ends; and the juſt Concern and Readineſs which I have conſtantly found in you, to make all neceſſary Proviſions for the Publick Good, and Our common Security, leave Me no Room to doubt of the ſame good Diſpoſition and Affection in this Inſtance.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am perſuaded, I need ſay no more to recommend theſe Conſiderations to you, which ſo neceſſarily ariſe from the preſent Situation of Affairs: I ſhall therefore only add, That whatever Expences may be incurred on this Occaſion, ſhall be made in as frugal a Manner as poſſible; and an Account thereof ſhall be laid before the next Parliament.

Petersburg, Feb. 21. The Ambaſſadors ſent hither by Thamas Kouli Kan, have brought fourteen Elephants, of the greateſt Beauty ever ſeen, loaded with the moſt magnificent Preſents. The Schach Nadir, after having ſubdued all Bucharia, went to Meczeck, Capital of that Kingdom, which he has given up to his Son, and from thence is return'd to Iſpahan. The laſt Letters from the Ukraine adviſe, that the famous Don Duc Ombo, Kan of the Calmucks, who refus'd to take the Oath of Fidelity to, and acknowledge the Regency of the late Duke of Courland, being inform'd of the Depoſition of that Duke, and that the Princeſs, Mother of the Emperor, was declar'd Great Dutcheſs and Regent of the Empire, he not only conform'd to his Duty, but at the ſame time gave very ſtrong Aſſurances, that he would, on all Occaſions, give the greateſt Proofs of his Fidelity and Zeal to the preſent Government.

Madrid, March 7. Notwithſtanding the Departure of the Troops deſign'd to paſs into Italy ſeems to be ſuſpended, Preparations for this Expedition are ſtill carrying on. They are laying in a great Stock of all ſorts of Proviſions and warlike Stores, and a large Quantity has been ſent to Barcelona, and other neighbouring Ports. The Squadron equipping at Cadiz, and which is to be reinforced by ſome other Ships, is to convoy thoſe which are to go to Italy, and will conſiſt of eighteen Men of War.

Copenhagen, March 7. Mr. Tirley, the Britiſh Miniſter here, has demanded, in the Name of the King his Maſter, the Troops this Court is to furniſh to his Britannick Majeſty. They write from Caſſel, that the 6000 Heſſians in Britiſh Pay have receiv'd Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march. The King, in a grand Council held laſt Week, order'd eight Men of War and three Frigates to be got ready to put to Sea in ſix Weeks.

Stockholm, March 10. There have been great Debates here among the Nobility, upon its being propos'd to aſſemble into a Body the Troops which are in Finland, and to provide them with a large Train of Artillery: This Propoſition however paſs'd in the Affirmative by a great Majority, and Orders conſequent thereto were ſent to General Brodenbruck.

Olmutz, March 15. We have receiv'd this Confirmation, that the Enemy had abandon'd the Fort of Jabluncka, upon the Frontiers of Hungary: that they had withdrawn the Troops

Troops which they had ſent to Teſchin; and that the King of Pruſſia had order'd the Army to aſſemble upon the Frontiers of this Province, in order to begin the Operations of the Campain: the mean time our Huſſars ſucceſsfully continue their Courſes into Sileſia. A Regiment of them a few Days ago had a Rencounter with a large Body of Pruſſian Troops, over whom they gain'd the Advantage, kill'd about a hundred and took a Standard and two Kettle-Drums.

Paris, March 20. M. de Belzance, Grand Maſter of the Wolf-Hunters, was a Day or two ſince attack'd in his Way to Verſailles by three Robbers; one of whom running to the Head of the Horſes, in order to ſtop them, was by a Kick of the Poſtillion thrown down, and the Cartiage run over him. His Accomplices fearing they ſhould be diſcover'd by him; ſhould they leave him alive, run him through the Body in many Places, and then, imagining him to be dead, left him; but the next Day being found alive, he declar'd who were his Accomplices, one of whom has been ſince taken.

London, March 17. Letters from Berlin mention, that Count Wallis is dangerouſly wounded at the taking of Glogau. They add, that Col. Van Bork was ſent by his Pruſſian Majeſty to the Court of Vienna, which gave Riſe to a Report, that an Accommodation will in a ſhort time be brought about with that Court.

An Extract of a private Letter from Paris.

'The critical Situation in which the Affairs of Europe 'now are, does not a little contribute to the preſent Motions 'of the Cardinal, who has certainly very much at Heart the 'Repoſe of this Part of the World, whatever may have been 'ſaid to the contrary. His Eminence, without Doubt, is 'uſing his utmoſt Efforts to have an Emperor at the Devo'tion of the French Nation, and he flatters himſelf with 'Succeſs therein; but there is abſolutely nothing in the Re'port that has been induſtriouſly ſpread at ſeveral Courts, 'that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had Thoughts of cauſing 'himſelf to be elected Emperor, which Rumours have evi'dently been rais'd with a View of exciting Jealouſies in the 'neighbouring Powers.

They write from Dreſden, that the Levies in Saxony are carried on very diligently, inſomuch, that they will have an Army of 46000 Men next May.

Advices from Vienna of the 9th Inſtant mention, that the Publick has for ſome time been flatter'd with the French King's favourable Intentions towards her Hungarian Majeſty; but now it's ſaid, that Monarch has by his Miniſters at all the Courts of the Empire declar'd, that he can never conſent to the Grand Duke of Tuſcany being Emperor.

On Wedneſday laſt the Rev. Mr. Whitefield arriv'd at Falmouth, in the Minerva, Capt. Meredith, from Charles-Town, South-Carolina, came to Town about Three Yeſterday Morning, and preach'd at Kennington-Common in the Afternoon. In a few Days he intends to publiſh an Account of the Money receiv'd and diſburs'd for the Orphan-Houſe in Georgia; and to preach this Evening at Kennington Common, between Four and Five o'Clock.

March 20. Advices from Munich, of the 15th Inſtant, import, that the Courier which lately arriv'd there from Paris brought ſuch agreeable News to the Elector of Bavaria, that his Highneſs preſented him with a Gold Watch, and 400 Louis d'Ors. Count Montijo is daily expected at Munich from Madrid, to execute a Commiſſion of the higheſt Importance.

Breſlau, March 19. Several Perſons accus'd of carrying on a Correſpondence prejudicial to the Intereſt of his Pruſſian Majeſty, have been ſent to his Quarters at Schweidnitz; among whom are a Jew, and a Sileſian Gentleman, who have both been condemn'd to Death. The Auſtrian Huſſars, within Sight of the Pruſſian Army, have lately carried off Part of the Baggage of their Adjutant-General.

Francfort, March 25. Letters from Petersburg adviſe, that Count Munich having demanded a Diſmiſſion from his Employments, becauſe his ill State of Health would not permit him to attend Publick Affairs, The Grand Dutcheſs has conſented thereto, though with Regret. He keeps an Appointment of 15000 Rubles.

Berlin, March 25. We hear that Count Hacke having made a Sally from Ottmachan with 140 Huſſars, beat a Detachment of 300 Auſtrian Huſſars, kill'd 20 of them, and took 27 Priſoners.

From the Virginia Gazette, Williamsburg, May 22.

By a Letter from a Gentleman at Edenton, in North Carolina, dated the 13th Inſtant, we have the following Advice, that their Sea-coaſt is much infeſted with two Spaniſh Privateers, who have taken ſeveral Veſſels, particularly two from that Port, loaden with Proviſions, before they had been half an Hour at Sea; one of them belong'd to Mr. James George, of Poſquotank, who had the Mortification to ſee his Veſſel and Cargo taken before his Face, as he ſtood on Shore. Theſe Privateers have taken four more Veſſels within theſe ten Days. They have chas'd three Veſſels from the Northward lately, which have narrowly eſcaped: The Spaniards are dull Sailors, and therefore they fitted out a Launch with 20 Men, to take a Boſton Sloop; the New-England Man, at his Wits-end, bethought of a Stratagem, whereby he ſav'd himſelf; for juſt as the Spaniards were about to board him, he ſuddenly beat out his Port holes, as if he had Guns, and would fire on them; which ſo ſcar'd 'em, that they march'd off with all Speed, and gave the Sloop an Opportunity to get in over the Bar. The Author of this Letter makes ſome ſmart Remarks on the Indolence of the Commanders of ſome Station Ships; which (for Modeſty's ſake) we omit; being more proper to be conſider'd in another Place.

The Hector Man of War, Sir Yelverton Peyton, is return'd from a Cruiſe to the Southward; having receiv'd ſome Damage by Lightning: So that the Spaniſh Privateers on the Coaſt, had the good Forrune to eſcape him for the preſent.

We have the following Account from a Gentleman of Credit, in the Northern-Neck, that may be depended on.

The Ship America, Capt. Rickſy, from Glaſcow, was taken off our Capes, on Monday, the 11th Inſtant, in 30 Fathom Water, by a Spaniſh Sloop. And the Ship Cumberland, from Whitehaven, after ſome Hours Engagement, eſcap'd; and brought the above News. She is now at Nomini.

The Ship Dragon, Capt. Ticehurſt, is arriv'd in York River, from South-Carolina, to load with Tobacco, for London.-----By this Ship, we have Advice from South-Carolina, That a Spaniſh Privateer has infeſted that Coaſt ſome Months, and taken ſeveral Veſſels off their Bar, almoſt in Sight of the King's Station Ship, Phenix, Capt. Fanſhawe, who, they ſay, has lain very contentedly in Harbour ſome Months, notwithſtanding the repeated Complaints of their Veſſels being taken.-----If ſome of the Commanders of the King's Ships would take Example from the brave Captain Warren, who by his Courage and Vigilance has taken 5 or 6 Spaniſh Prizes within theſe few Months, our Coaſt would be ſecure, our Trade protected, as it ought to be, and they would better deſerve his Majeſty's Pay, than they have done for ſome Time paſt; by lying cloſe in a State of Indolence, inſtead of Activity.

Yeſterday Morning the Hon. Preſident Blair, received a Letter from Governor Johnſton, of North Carolina, acquainting him of the Spaniſh Privateers on that Coaſt, with a Depoſition relating to it He alſo received Advice of the taking the Glaſcow Ship off our Capes. Upon which, he forthwith diſpatch'd an Expreſs to Sir Yelverton Peyton, at Hampton, to inform him of theſe Advices. It's hop'd, his Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, will induce him to exert himſelf on this extraordinary Occaſion.

Fre-

Frederica, in Georgia, May 16. 1741.

On the 8th Inſt. a Party of Creek Indians arrived here, who had on the 4th an Engagement juſt by St. Auguſtine with a Party of Horſe, whom they defeated, and brought one of the Spaniards Priſoner with them, who ſays, that the Place has been ſo block'd up by the Indians, who, by General Oglethorpe's Order, reliev'd one another ſince the Siege, that they have had no Support from the Country, and dare not come out to plant, for there hath hardly paſſed a Week, but ſome of thoſe who ventured out have been kill'd.

The Priſoner farther ſays, that the Spaniards have not ventured to rebuild any of the ſeven Forts, burnt in the laſt Campaign, which makes that they cannot defend their Country from the Indians; ſo that by the General's demoliſhing thoſe Forts, the Engliſh Indians continue Maſters of all Florida (Auguſtine excepted) the Garriſon and People of which Town, amount to between three and four Thouſand Men, who are ſupply'd by Sea from the Havannah. The Priſoner ſays, That ſince Capt Knowles took the Pay-Ship with two hundred Thouſand Pieces of Eight on board, they never ſend any Men of War up, but the Pay is ſent every Month from the Havannah in ſmall Veſſels that run along the Coaſt, with not above twenty thouſand Pieces of Eight on board of each. That three Spaniſh Privateer Sloops and a Snow were ſail'd from St. Auguſtine to the Northward: The General order'd the Guard Sloop from hence, to cruize off of Auguſtine; and 'tis hop'd ſhe will meet with ſome of thoſe Privateers in their Return.

St. Simons, May 19 1741.

On Sunday the 10th of this Month Capt. Richard Norbury, Capt. Albert Desbriſay, and ſeveral more of General Oglethorpe's Officers, dined together at St. Simons Camp, when there aroſe a Diſpute between the two Captains, the reſt of the Company interfer'd, and ſeemingly made the Matter up, and the Gentlemen drank ſeveral Glaſſes of Wine together: Soon after, the Company broke up, and went different Ways: But unfortunately; for Capt. Norbury and Capt. Desbriſay met, and on a freſh Diſpute they both drew their Swords; Capt. Norbury received one Wound in his Belly, and one in each Arm: He died immediately. Capt. Desbriſay was run through one Thigh, wounded in the other, and in his left Hand.

Newport, May 28. Capt Hammond, in a Veſſel of this Town, who ſail'd from Philadelphia, laſt Fall, with Proviſions for the Fleet at Jamaica, and was ſuppos'd to have been foundered at Sea, was caſt aſhore on Hiſpaniola, his Cargo moſtly ſav'd, and the People at Porto Plata repaid themſelves out of it, for their Loſs when Hall took their Town. The Captain died ſoon after; two of the Sailors are come Home, the Reſt, with eight or nine Men left aſhore at Cape Francois, by Capt. Hall, ſometime in the Winter, are diſtributed among the French Ships. Theſe Men ſay, the Spaniards uſed them very kindly, and aſſiſted them in travelling to the French Settlements, in order for a Paſſage Home; but that the French uſed them very ill, to make them take on in their Service.

On Monday laſt our Governour and Council received Advice from New-York, That there were two Spaniſh Privateers on the Coaſt, upon which it was order'd that the Colony Sloop ſhould take a Cruize, and that the Drums ſhould beat up for Voluntiers, and the next Day ſhe ſail'd with about an Hundred ſtout Men, commanded by Capt. Benjamin Wickham, whoſe Inſtructions are to go as far Weſtwatd as New-York, and then to ſtretch to the Eaſtward as far as Martha's Vineyard. It is ſaid that one of theſe Privateers is commanded by a Frenchman, whom in particular we are in great Hopes Capt. Wickham will meet with, that the Monſieur may be ſuitably corrected for dabling in Affairs that he has no Buſineſs with.

PHILADELPHIA.

On the 25th of the laſt Month, the Presbyterian Synod opened their Seſſion in this City; and after ſeveral Days ſpent in Debates on the Rights of Presbyteries, &c. a Proteſtation was entred into, on the firſt Inſtant, and ſigned by 12 Miniſters and 8 Members then preſent, by which the Rev. Meſſrs. the Tennents, and their Adherents, are excluded the Synod, and declared to have forfeited their Right of ſitting, and voting as Members thereof: The excluded Brethren immediately withdrew, and met by themſelves in another Place. 'Tis ſaid, that the Number of the Excluded was nearly equal to that of the Synod remaining. The Proteſtation, containing the Reaſons of their Conduct, is now publiſhed by order of the Synod.

On Sunday the 31ſt of laſt Month, the Rev. Mr. Gilbert Tennent preached five Times, to crowded Audiences: And on the Wedneſday following, he baptiſed, at the New-Building, Eight adult Perſons, who had been of the People called Quakers, one, as is ſaid, a Preacher. Mr. Whitefield had baptiſed three at the ſame Place, when he was laſt in this City.

We have yet no Accounts, that may be depended on, of the Taking of the Town of Carthagena.

We hear from New-York, that four Negroes were burnt alive there on Tueſday laſt, for ſetting ſeveral Houſes on fire: And that To-morrow, being Friday, John Howſon, his Wife, Daughter, and Margaret Cary, are to be executed, on the ſame Account.
